

LOCALS.
THE BRIDGE UP.—Yesterday morning about 7 o'clock, the ice above this place broke up, and in one immense cake, moved down as far as the landing, where, after sinking two flat-boats for Mr. John Cook and two coal-boats belonging to Mr. John Kendall, and storing in the "Ohio and Kentucky" ferry boat, it became wedged in tight enough to stop for a short time. On its starting again, the ferry boat was so much damaged that the machinery was immediately taken out. The boiler, chimney and engine were saved in tolerable condition; the boat, however, is sunk near the shore, and too much damaged for repair. The steamer Domain, lying above town a mile or two, broke loose from her landing and floated down some distance before her progress could be arrested. The steamer Tiber got up steam in the morning for the purpose of running into the mouth of the Scioto, but the ice began to move again before the boat was ready to put out. She was not damaged, owing to her position being below a number of flat and coal boats. The ferry had recently been purchased by Mr. Nurne, and the loss of the boat is not only unfortunate for that gentleman, but will be the cause of a serious inconvenience to our Kentucky friends and many citizens of this place. At present writing, the ice is more broken and running thinner. The "oldest inhabitant" has never known the river to be so full of ice, nor experienced such a winter.

I certify that the foregoing law is correctly copied from the original roll on file in this office.

WILLIAM TREVITT,
Secretary of State.

DISTRESSING OCCURRENCE.—In Berks co. Pa., seven miles above Reading, on last August 6th, a young lady named Miss Miller, aged twenty years, met with an untimely death. While on her way to school, she was crossing the ice of the Schuylkill, at Koenig's Ferry, Miss Miller walked on the ice until she had reached the middle of the river, when the ice broke, immersing her in water up to the arms, and seizing hold of the edge of the ice, she kept herself from sinking altogether. Her cries brought the neighbors to the shore, and a boat was obtained for her relief, but none had the courage to enter it for her rescue. Those on shore looked on for more than an hour, when the poor girl, becoming exhausted and frozen, slipped off and disappeared under the ice. Even after she had given up her hold on the ice, she swam on the surface for some time, and yet no effort was made to save her life.

The descendants of the ancient Samaritans, still exist in the east. They reject all the sacred books of the Jews, except those of Moses. They have copies of the Pentateuch in the ancient Hebrew characters. The present Hebrew letters are not those originally used by the Jews.

Too True.—An old Paris paper has the following singular remark:—"The Americans and English educate their children in the fear of God and the love of money."

A FINE EAR FOR MUSIC.—Two Irishmen, in crossing a field, came in contact with a jack, who was making "day-light hideous" with his unearthly baying. Jimmy stood a moment in astonishment, but turning to Pat, who seemed as much enraptured with the song as himself, remarked:

"It's a fine large ear that bird has for music, Pat, but sure he's got a wonderful cowl."

Why is a man who does not bet, as bad as a man that does? Because he's no better.

Why is an errand boy like an old horse put up at auction? Because he'll go for what he'll fetch.—Pinch.

EXTRAORDINARY.—The Susquehanna being frozen at Havre de Grace, the railroad company has successfully accomplished the novel undertaking of laying a track directly upon the ice, and thus the cars pass directly across the river, without any detention.

PRINTERS' FEARS.—Two printers in the Plymouth Rock office, tired of taking impressions on the forms of that paper, tried it on the hearts of two fair damsels. After several settings up they succeeded in taking such full proofs of the matter, that this week the minister of the place was called in and worked off the whole four forms in two folio editions, leaving them locked up for life. Now let them "circulate the documents."

Shoemakers Kit and Findings.—Large lot of Pops, Laces, Linings, Leather, Gaiters, Caps, Kip, upper and Sole Leather and a general stock of Kid and Morocco just now coming at the Peoples Shoe Store on Market St. R. BELL & Co.

10,000 DOLLARS REWARD
Is offered for a better receipt.

And is safe for the most delicate child.
It is estimated that 150,000 persons die annually in the United States with Consumption, and Professor Eberly says that a vast number of these could have been saved by the timely use of some prompt remedy.

Dr. Hall's Balsam Strikes at the Root of the Disease at once, and such is its speedy effect, that any one using it freely according to directions for 24 or 48 hours, are not entirely satisfied with its merits, the bottle may be returned, and their money will be cheerfully refunded. The most distressing cough is frequently relieved by a single dose, and broken up in a few hours' time. The afflicted do not have to take bottle after bottle before they find whether this remedy will afford relief or not.

Call on the Agent and get a pamphlet gratis. The treatise on Consumption alone is worth more than the price of the medicine. You will find certificates of Physicians in Cincinnati, and of others whose curative have been effected here at home, where they can be found.

The public have been imposed upon by remedies, recommended by certificates which have always originated from some unknown source. We believe that a medicine possessing real merits will effect cures wherever it is used, at home as well as abroad. This is no Paregoric preparation, but one which if used in season will save the lives of thousands, and persons may make this bargain with agents from whom they purchase, that in every case where it is used freely according to directions, and entire satisfaction is not given in 24 or 48 hours, they can return the medicine, and their money will be cheerfully refunded.

THESE!

WE DON'T WISH TO MAKE, BUT to all those who buy goods anywhere else than at HALL'S, we would say you will wish you hadn't been so green, the next time you see any of our customers. Modestly forbids our saying that we can sell goods cheaper than the manufacturer; but this much we will say, we don't expect the profits from those who pay to cancel the debts of those who will not. We trust some but paying men, therefore, we can sell a little cheaper than the generally of our brethren in the west.

We do not pretend to enumerate our stock, as we hold it would be easier to commence at the other end of the list and say what we haven't got. Suffice it to say that we have just received a large and well assorted

STOCK OF DRY GOODS, and other articles, by way of accommodation. To our old customers, who already know where the best goods can be got for the lowest prices, we would say that we are now cheaper than ever.

To the ladies, we would respectfully invite you to call and examine our stock of

FANCY GOODS.
And although considered by some to be almost out of the city, we can assure you that it is only a pleasant evening's walk down to our establishment.

To the Country merchants, we would call your attention to our large and extensive stock, and feel assured that you would not lose anything by a careful examination.

To all we would add, we consider it no trouble to show our goods by or no buy. Call and examine.
